

COLLABORATIVE PRACTICE

THE COLLABORATIVE LAW PROCESS IS AT THE CUTTING EDGE OF DISPUTE RESOLUTION PRACTICE TODAY USING AN INNOVATIVE COOPERATIVE PROBLEM SOLVING APPROACH TO SETTLE CONFLICTS.

COURSE

Level One Collaborative Practice

DATES

25-26 July 2008 or
21-22 November 2008

THE VENUE

Room 318, Level 3, Building 5B
UTS Haymarket Campus,
1-59 Quay St Haymarket, 2007

COST

$975 (incl GST)

AUDIENCE

The two day basic course is designed for:

1. legal practitioners
2. accountants, financial and business advisers and assessors
3. mediators and dispute resolution specialists
4. coaches, family consultants and child specialists
5. estate planners
6. human resources and relationship managers

to gain a working understanding of collaborative law practice and the basic skills to practice as a collaborative professional.

LEVEL ONE COLLABORATIVE PRACTICE

Participants will learn:

- > the guiding principles of collaborative practice
- > the shift from conventional 'rights-based' process to a client centred 'goal-focused' approach
- > the steps and stages of conducting a collaborative case
- > the kinds of cases that can be handled successfully using collaborative practice
- > how to begin practising as a collaborative professional.

ACCREDITATION

This training meets the requirements of Collaborative Professionals (NSW) Inc for inclusion on the website as a collaborative professional.

1CLE / CPD Pt = 1 hour of participation

THE PRESENTERS

Marilyn Scott, is a practising solicitor and mediator. Marilyn is a specialist lecturer and trainer in Dispute Resolution and Collaborative law at UTS. Marilyn is a Vice -President of Collaborative Professionals (NSW) Inc and pioneered Collaborative Law training in NSW and Queensland.

Coaching by a team of experienced Collaborative practitioners.

FURTHER DETAILS

For more information

- > on these and future level one courses
- > on Advanced Collaborative Practice Skills (including communication and negotiation, interdisciplinary collaborative teams and extending professionals skill sets to suit the Collaborative process)
- > Regional and interstate training programs

Please contact:

UTS: LAW Professional Development
Ph: +61 2 9514 3085
Fax: +61 2 9514 3400
Email: pdu.law@uts.edu.au

